city, & we feel as if ~~we~~ he was the very man for us at this time.

Won't you show this letter to Stanton, & ask him to write immediately to Dr Liholt or to me, & let us know on whom we can depend. "This is immensely important."

Yrs truly, in great haste,
A. S. Thord.

P.S. You will see references to some ~~very~~ facts on this subject on the sheet entitled
"Bird's-eye View," &c.

After showing the horrors of the slave trade, perhaps it would be well to quote the testimony of T. J. Randolph (See Al-monac for 1836, that the Domestic Slave trade is worse than the foreign. Will not your legislature pass some resolutions
this session on the Domestic Slave trade?

has come, & will attend to this matter for himself.

Let me beg of you to make arrangements to be here at our Convention, & use your best exertions to persuade W. Phillips, & O. Scott to come likewise. I am afraid Luther Lee will not be here, & if he is not, we cannot do without Scott. Tell him the Methodists here are bearing up nobly under the frowns & flatteries, persecutions & pleadings, threats & caresses of their opponents, though I am sorry to say that some flinch.

They had a very strong annual meeting last evening - Broadway hall crowded - an excellent address from Brother Storr - between $200 & $300 raised & subscribed. Tell him not to fail of coming, ^{Bro.} Sunderland is away to be gone several weeks, Brother Storr will be fully occupied with his paper. The folks at the Book room are fighting desperately. They will seize every advantage they can possibly obtain against ^{Methodist} it is very important that the ^{abolition-}ists here should be kept vigilant, & that their opponents should know it. Yours of the 16th & 17th are received in brother Wright's absence. I seize a moment to say that I think Providence has opened a door which you can do immense good by entering.

- (1) ~~In an~~ You can find many facts on the Extent of the slave trade in the files of Slavery in America which I send you.
- (2) You will see in No 10. p. 236, a statement that the slavers are chiefly American built.
- (5.) "Horror" See British Emancipator, June 6, 1838, &c &c &c.

Brougham's Speech you will find in Liberator of May 25, 1838.

If you will look in the State Library, & refer to American State Papers, Class 10. Vol 2. No 479, p 568, you will see a statement in the New York proceedings, which, taken in connection with a paragraph in the Emancipator of Feb. 8, 1838, being No 15, in the article headed "Senator King & the Vermont Memorial" will throw some light on the connection of slavery in the United States with the foreign slave trade. And now brother Wright
